Aculist Provides More Value Than It's Competitors

- Fresh Data: The most up-to-date data available – updated several times a month – directly from the MLS
- Agent Branding: Professional looking reports with the agent's photo and contact information automatically added to each report
- More Choice: Agents choose what information, which layout and data their prospects and clients want. With five templates, six different reports to choose from, agents have access to an abundance of content
- Smart Reports: With smart text, automated content, Aculist does not rely on charts and graphs, rather combines key references and sales material on each report
- Marketing Flair: With updated templates, prominent branding, and eye-pleasing designs, Aculist reports leave behind the industrial-styled charts and Excel-styled tables with a contemporary look.

Aculist is a wonderful tool that I use for all my open houses and listing appointments. The beautifully designed and easy to understand reports give myself and my clients a clear understanding of what is happening in their marketplace. Living and selling in Silicon Valley the understanding of statistics is important, Aculist gives me the edge with the understanding of stats and trends in any neighborhood. These reports set me apart from my competition.
